My Late Honey "Christine Y. Decoteau" had passed away from a heart attack on July-1-2015, and before she passed My Honey gave me a request. The request is she wants to be Buried in Colorado Springs, Colorado. I am still trying to Honor My Honey's request. Why am I asking for $40,000 well most of that will be put towards her Funeral cost. Christine Y. Decoteau had been cremated back in July 2015, so I have her Ashes still with me here plus I yes Me will be bringing her Ashes to Colorado myself Because I LOVE HER and I want to insure Christine gets a Proper Burial with Tombstone. For on the Tombstone I will like it to say: "Christine Yvonne DeCoteau age 45 Born July-8-1969 and passed away July-1-2015. She is still in my Heart forever even though I can't be with her I still LOVE Her Dearly." Rest in Peace My Dear for Heaven has peace for your Soul." Some of the Funds will be for my car's tune-up and maintenance to get it ready for the round trip to and from Colorado, plus food and lodging of me and my Dog. My dog is my only companion. If anyone is can Please help me help her that will be greatly appreciated. Here is the GoFundMe link:

More than a decade ago I worked with Christine in Tallahassee. She was a lovely person to run into everyday and she always made me laugh. She had a wit that was so subtle and she could catch you off guard even if you knew how mischievous she was. I used to puppy sit her Golden once in a while. He was strong as an ox and I can't ever say I walked him, rather he walked me... One day I was taking him out for a walk just after she had back surgery and while she stood there and chatted with me while I thought I was minding Sebastian, he pulled me right off my feet like a rag doll! We both laughed so hard! I'll always remember Christine and her very large, lovable Golden. I wish her family much comfort and peace.
