Daniel Bowman Conger

DEC 30, 1953 - JAN 29, 2016

Daniel Bowman Conger died peacefully on Friday, January 29, 2016, at the Margaret Z. Dozier Hospice House in Tallahassee.

Daniel fought a courageous battle against cancer the last seven years never giving up hope that a cure was just around the corner. Daniel was an inspiration to all who knew him, demonstrating grace and humor in the face of adversity and overwhelming odds.

Daniel was born to Audrey and Jerome Conger on December 30, 1953, in Miami, Florida. Daniel was the youngest of three boys. Daniel grew up in Jacksonville, Florida, moving to Tallahassee in his senior year of high school where he went on to graduate from the University of Hard Knocks. Daniel married his "reason for living," Sue, on her birthday in 1981. Daniel was a loving and proud father of his two sons Jeremy and Joel Conger.

Daniel liked being his own boss and owned two businesses over the years: Drapery and Blind Installations and Pizza Take & Bake. In later years he used his management skills in several local companies where he tried to instill good working habits in young adults. Daniel retired in 2014 to focus on completing his plans to make his backyard into his own private Eden.

Daniel is survived by his wife, Sue, with whom he just celebrated their 34th anniversary; his sons, Jeremy (Nicole) and Joel; grandchildren, Charlotte and Devlyn; his Father, Jerome Conger (Helen); brothers, David Conger (Debi), Victor Hansen (Marie); brother-in-law, Scott Davidson (Ann); sister-in-law, Stacey Reynolds; mother and father-in-law, Marge and Ted Davidson; and nieces and nephews, Jimmy Conger (Rebecca), Chris Hansen (Corey), April Staples (Mark), Blake Davidson, Faith Davidson, Margaret Hope Davidson, and Zealand Reynolds.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Audrey Conger, and nephew, Robbie Reynolds.

I remember Dan as an outstanding, dedicated and loving father and husband. When we first moved to Tallahassee in 1987, we lived on the same street as the Congers. We both had two little boys, and they often played together. There were lots of happy times with our families. Our paths crossed many times through the years, as Dan installed all of the blinds in our home. I will always remember Dan as a positive, loving man. Tallahassee and Dan's family and friends have lost a true treasure. I hope the words of friends and family will bring comfort and peace at this sad time. God bless! Nancy and Sam Varn

Danny was such an amazing man... funny, smart, and giving... always ready with a smile... and full of love for his family and friends. The world has lost one of its best, and he will be missed more than words can say.

Dan helped facilitate a huge change in my life that eventually helped me get married and buy my first home. Dan's exuberance and perpetual wit never faded. The last time we spoke we only joked about fun times we had, and were both laughing the whole time. He lived so happily through such a struggle. I will never forget him, and only hope to be half as strong as he was.
