One of a kind. Absolutely the strongest person I know. There are not words to accurately describe the hole he has left in the world. Love you very much Shane. I know Faith was there to welcome you.

I know the family has saddened hearts because of losing Shane. I want to share this beautiful scripture where our heavenly father promises us that he is going to do away with man's greatest enemy, death. Rev. 21: 3,4; "With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. "And God himself will be with them." And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." It is my prayer this scripture will give you comfort in your grief

I lit a purple candle in Shane's honor. That is the color of the Cystic Fibrosis Awareness ribbon. Shane will forever be in my heart. Breathe easy, Shane! I will see you in heaven. My thoughts and prayers are with his mom, dad, fiance and multitude of other friends and family. He touched so many people in his short 45 years. I am so happy you are not suffering any more.
