Joseph Percy Jennette, 84, of Cairo, GA, and most recently staying in Tallahassee, passed away on November 1, 2016, at TMH. He is survived by his wife Daryle of Cairo, GA, his sister Jane Keller of Panama City, his children Julie Barnes of Dallas, TX, Emilie Jennette of Jackson, WY, Paul Jennette of Dryden, NY, Dorje Jennette of Davis, CA, and Tara Jennette-Brown of Tallahassee, as well as 7 grandchildren. The family will hold a private service and his ashes will be committed to the sea by the United States Navy.

Born in Franklin, TN, Mr. Jennette graduated from Georgia Tech and served honorably in the US Navy before starting his career as an architect in Nashville, TN, and later Tallahassee. He made his mark on significant buildings in both cities, including the Tennessee Performing Arts Center, the Murphy Center at Middle Tennessee State University, and the Florida Department of Law Enforcement headquarters in Tallahassee.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting donations be made to the Sierra Club, of which Mr. Jennette was a longtime member. Lifesong Funerals is assisting the family – more information is available at lifesongfunerals.com

I always enjoyed stopping and talking to Mr. Jennette while he was walking his dog down Stevens road. He was always so kind and such a pleasant person to visit with. He was a part of the greatest generations of Americans ever. So glad I got to know him. He will be missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family. David Poole
