Richard Frederick Langford

JAN 27, 1959 - JUN 9, 2017

Richard Frederick Langford passed peacefully on June 9, 2017.

Born on January 27, 1959, in Miami, FL to Robert and Mary Langford. He graduated from Leon High School in 1978. As a child he enjoyed being an Eagle Scout, and as he grew older, loved to fish and be on the water.

Richard is survived by his former wife Susan Langford, his son Jonathan Langford, daughters Jackie Langford, and Ashley Bartlett (Ryan), his sisters Carol Pennington (Jerry), and Marilyn Davis (Cliff), his brother Robert Langford, Jr., grandchildren, Sy Bartlett, Madeline Langford, and Mynor Bartlett, and many nieces and nephews.

Friends and family are invited to "Raise a Glass to Richie" from 3-5pm on Tuesday, June 13, 2017, at 7 Cutty Sark Court Panacea, FL (Clubhouse). In lieu of flowers, please donate to Big Bend Hospice or the American Brain Tumor Association.

I went to Leon High with Richie. He was a fun & great guy to be around. My heart is broken to just find out about his passing. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family & fiends. My last name now is Fulghum but was Beth Fulghum living in Hickory, NC. I also friends with Susan which we all went to St. Pauls Methodist together. I found out from Sharon Frye now Helsby we grew up together. Tallahassee was a wonderful place to grow up. I just survived breast cancer a year ago. So we know this horrible journey with cancer. I wish I could have seen him:-(. God Bless, Beth
