Ray and I were so saddened to hear of Bill's passing. It seems like it was a life time ago that we met, Aug. 15th/16th 1965 at Marymount Hospital bringing our daughters, Deb and Pam, into the world. Bill and Ray, the proud dads, started their friendship and Bill with his polaroid camera took pics for us. I think back to our visits in Berea, with the girls as toddlers and our couple of visits to Tallahassee when we were going to Disney. Last fall thru phone calls and emails we reunited our friendship. My first conversation was with Bill and after catching up on our families, it just seemed like our friendship was uninterrupted by miles and daily life. Mary Ann, Pam and Tricia please feel the huge, warm hug we are sending your way. Love, Ray and Marge

I am so very sorry for your loss. One of my best memories of Bill was when we were neighbors and Halloween. Bill dressed as a scarecrow, sat still as a mouse in a rocking chair on his front porch, and when the kids came up jumped up and said Boo!. Scared the bejeebes out of the kids. We all laughed and laughed. He was a good man and neighbor. Hugs to you all in your grief.
