I extend my condolences and prayers of strength and comfort to you Mrs. Beverly and Family. Yet though your heart weeps quietly and your body feels this loss, know that you are not alone in your grief. No pain, suffering, or loss will follow your beloved Kim, she resides both safe and secure in the arms of Our Savior on High. I pray her memories will hold you warmly, her laughter will flow like a whisper within the wind, and her smiles will soften the blow of loss in moments to come. We all should strive to live a life filled with passion, compassion, humor and a modicum of style, and Mrs. Beverly you and your family gave her life another spark of fire in every thought and comment of love you have shared. Peace be with thee, in all areas and in all memories. "Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going." John 14:1-4 Sincerely with Grace from God, Pamela Beauchamp -Hall

My thoughts and prayers are with you Beverly and with your family. Kim could certainly make you laugh. I did not know her that well, but Beverly you were always there for her and for your nephews and your parents. I enjoyed listening to all of your conversations with her when you were at work and near me. We had more than one laugh when she would hunt you down. Kim knew how to find you if you didn't answer your cell as quickly as she wanted you to. Just remember the fun and laughter you shared. I pray that God will wrap his arms around you and your family during these difficult days and give you strength.

I am so deeply saddened by the passing of such a great friend and beautiful soul. We shared many great times by her pool, our many travels, going to the FSU football games together, all of our stories and all of our MANY laughs together. She could always make you smile and see the positive instead of the negative. She will definitely be missed by SO many. Thoughts and prayers for peace and comfort for the entire family and all of her friends. I know my life was better when she was in it. Rest in Peace, sweet Kim. You're body was tired and The Lord definitely picked one of the most beautiful roses here on earth to be in His garden in Heaven. Love you BIG....ALWAYS. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
