Mom, I Know your in Heaven dancing with the angels to good old fiddle music. know your daddy is dancing with you, SO MANY HAPPY MEMORIES!! You were so blessed by God, and so loved. I will one day see you again, I will never forget every time I called you, and you would sound so happy to hear from me, I will miss your voice, your encouragement, your southern hospitality! there will never be a day that goes by, that your not in my heart, and i will always think of you. I know i didnt make it in time to see you mom, but i saw you in my heart , GOD Must be happy, he got another beautiful Woman! You keep on dancing Mom, and know you were well loved on this earth! Mom, you were and always will be My Hero. So many of the qualities that I possess today as your daughter... a mother, grandmother, and great grandmother... I learned from you. My huge heart and giving to others out of love, my work ethic, my financial sense, truth and honesty... I owe it All to You! Aunt Gerri always shared the stories of you graduating early at 16 and meeting Dad - the Manager at the Woolworths Five and Dime .. and coming home and announcing that you were going to marry Gene Bowen! We talked of where you were actually born - Mooreville or Tupelo -- Aunt Gerri just could not remember so they opted for Tupelo because it was a little bigger!! You surely did marry Dad and had all five of us ! Loved us, our children, their children.. and my last memories were every night when i would bring Caidence over and you would "glow" and say "there's that fat little baby". I will forever miss those nightly visits as i will always miss our visits through the years when you and I would talk about work ...yours at the National Education Association with so very many close "life friends"... and then on to care for and love those you took care of through Home Instead. Retirement - not for You ... you would say...I am so blessed to have had a Mom like you... and if i have accomplished my greatest feat ... it is to have followed in your Very Huge Footprints. God gained an Amazing Angel on the morning of June 21st!
