Donnie and I were the same age and went to church together as teenagers. This is the second child his mother has lost. From personal experience I know it is hard to lose a child. Donnie, As kids we lived together, we fought, we laughed, we shared our dreams and plans, and some secrets. The memories that we shared are what bonds us together. We grew to find we had love that was very strong. It's a love that will never fade,you were my brother not by choice but by nature, I couldn't have chosen a better brother you were the best. They say that you will never be forgotten as long as someone knows your name. As long as I live,you will not be forgotten. Your little brother, bubba
