Faye McCoy Callaway

JAN 3, 1930 - MAY 16, 2022

She was preceded in death by her husband Aaron, sons Michael and Wayne, and siblings Thelma, Malcolm, Frank, and Allie.

Faye had an unwavering faith in God which carried her through life's trials. Her family was her life's work and joy. She inspired us with her dedication to God and family. Faye was loving, caring, humble, patient, encouraging, kind-hearted, and generous.

She loved spending time with her family walking on the beach, playing board and card games, and putting together puzzles. Faye and her sisters loved working on family genealogy. She learned the skills of cooking and sewing from her mother and taught those skills to her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Her fruitcake, divinity and fudge were legendary among family and friends.

Faye's family will miss her kind and loving presence, but rejoices knowing she is with her Heavenly Father and loved ones. Her memory will continue to inspire her family to live a faith-filled life.

Faye's family will gather at the family homestead to give honor and thanks for being blessed with such a remarkable woman. She will be laid to rest at the family homestead Johnson-Moore cemetery.

I have many wonderful memories of Faye Callaway. We have been friends for nearly 50 years. We first met at the lake Jackson United Methodist Church. Faye and Aaron and their children attended and my husband, Harris Jones, was their pastor. We had boys who were close in age and enjoyed playing and doing boy things together. Randy McCoy, a cousin lived next door. The Callaway's home and front porch were always a welcoming place for everyone. As a family we enjoyed many delicious meals around their dining room table with lots of laughter and love. Since Faye and I were almost the same age, we didn't get to see each other as much in later years. But I know where to find her, and I am headed for that same happy eternal home and we will praise our Lord forever.

Miss Faye was always so kind & welcoming. She always had a beautiful smile and a twinkle in her eye. My most fond memories were of the wonderful smells that came from her kitchen & the fact that she always had treats for any kid that showed up to play.

Aunt Faye was someone who was always "present." When you were with her, you felt loved and knew she was listening. She never wanted the spotlight. She taught us so much by her actions and sweet encouraging words. She gave me a simple gold necklace a few years ago. It was one my mom had given to her probably during my mom's illness with dementia. She said she thought I would want it. That little necklace means so much to me. A gift from my mom and from Aunt Faye. We'll miss you Aunt Faye but we'll see you later!
