Harold was my Nazarene church camp pal from high school days, and first college roommate. I was a shy farm kid from Frankfort, IN. Had no date for Tipoff at ONC, so he and Gena fixed me up with Gloria from Winamac, Gena's friend. A blind date! Had great fun. Harold could not be beat at ping pong - he let me win once in awhile. I stayed at his house one time, met his folks and brother. Great people, real believers, wonderful Christian friends. Thank you, Lord Jesus, for letting me have Harold Smith as a friend.
