Lois Powell Taylor posted:

I'm so sorry to hear that Gladys passed away. She took care of my mother and we were so grateful for her help. She was a Christian and my mother appreciated her fellowship and our family was so glad that Gladys was with her. My mother told me that when she died only Gladys and God would be in the room. And on that Monday morning, we stepped out to greet a family visitor and Mama grabbed Gladys' hand and told her it was time. They had a special friendship. Gladys was a spitfire and we enjoyed her stories about the early NASCAR activities with the famous racers. She lived a full life for sure. I hope she and Mama are walking hand in hand in Heaven together.
