Rhonda was a beautiful, special woman. We had known each other for years and years. As her caregiver and fiancé, for the past several months, we learned a lot from each other. She learned compromise, and I learned patience (well, some patience). We have many mutual friends, and she introduced me to many family members. She will be missed by many

Rhonda and I were friends since I was 23 and she was Randy and Scotty's baby sister. She used to visit me and my now passed husband DeWayne Palmer when we lived in Kissimmee. Had many years of great times with her. So very sorry that she has passed. Will miss her lovely smile.

Rhonda girl. Remember in middle school, we would go to your house and play Loretta Lynn songs and just sing. And I was at your house when Elvis died. We got such a kick out of telling people we met that we were both named Rhonda. I loved you like a sister. You are a big part on my childhood memories. RIP my friend. See you again. Love, Rhonda Pettis
