My Aunt Sue was the younger sister of my daddy, Marion G. Pearce, Jr. I have beautiful memories of my childhood and life with her loving me every day. I realize how important that coating of love is today more than ever. Now, I'm 66 and have more family in Heaven than here. I'm a product of my family's love and prayers. Thank God that the end here is just the beginning of an eternity of love and Joy together forever. No one was ever more loved than me and I will always feel the layers of that love to my deepest heart. Til then, I love you, John and Debra and pray for your peace.

Sue was as close to me as a sister I loved her family as my own and she loved mine. We grew up together at church, enjoyed summer shenanigans, rode the bus to movies downtown on Saturdays, swam and suntanned at Evergreen, all while dreaming large, living out our high school and college adventures. Later in life we found our sons had previously met through business and 3 of our grandchildren were named the same - Chris, Lindsay and Daniel. Life has a way of connecting the dots. I will remember Sue for her vibrant personality, her smile, her love of family and friends, but most especially, no matter how many years went by, we could call each other on the phone and pick up exactly where we left off, laughing and crying and catching up- she will live on in my heart as my "forever friend." - I love you, Sue. We'll catch up soon. Jean

Sue will always be remembered as family to my wife and I. It was always a joy to see her when we were in Tallahassee or at the river house visiting Steve and Debra. She always made us feel like we were one of hers. I even had the privilege of sitting with her at an FSU game (NC/FSU 10-10 tie) That is how well I still remember being around her. She will be greatly missed by all of us her knew her.
