He is survived by the love of his life, his wife of 43 years Clemey Parramore; son, Bill Parramore Jr. (Norma) of Crawfordville, FL; daughter, Susan King of Quincy, FL; son, Shannon Darby (Lisa) of Quincy, FL; four grandchildren – Kendall Rabon (Johnathan), Josh Darby (Gretchen), Travis Parramore (Jadzia), and Ashley Harvey (Garrett); one great granddaughter, Aspin Harvey and one brother, Richard Parramore (Judy); mother of his children, Martha Parramore; special friends, Buddy and Janet Cox; special full-time caregiver, Linda Gilyard and part-time caregivers, Marquiesha Mitchell, Caleb Close, and Maggie Horton; many nieces, nephews and other special friends.

Bill graduated from Quincy High School in 1958 and attended college in North Carolina. After college, he worked as a salesman for Frosty Morn and retired from Lykes Brothers, Inc. in 1991. Sales was what he did best and after a short time in retirement, he decided to change directions and sell vehicles for Bill Wells Chevrolet in Quincy, FL where he will be remembered by many in the community.

Bill's life was centered on his family, friends and the farm. Bill loved to spend most of his time on his cattle farm and continued that passion to the end. If you ever wanted to find him, just look for his green mule and his riding buddy, his dog Tucker. He didn't need much and found no other place he'd rather be than on Parramore Hill driving a tractor or sitting on the porch. His slogan
