Rowe Ellen Rogero

SEP 24, 1941 - JUL 7, 2024

Rowe Ellen Eikenberry Rogero passed away in her home over the July 4th weekend.

Rowe was born September 24, 1941, in Santa Rosa, California, but largely grew up in Miami, Florida. She is predeceased by her parents, Rogers and Emily Eikenberry, and her son Michael Hinton. She is survived by her husband Herb Rogero, brother Charles Eikenberry (Bev) and sister Judy Hatfield (Rob), daughter Catherine Schnars (Mark) and son Cayce Hinton (Tina), as well as stepson and daughter, Jeff Rogero (Carla) and Jennifer Longman (Ron). Rowe also leaves behind seven grandchildren and one great granddaughter, along with two nieces and a nephew.

Rowe retired from her career with the state of Florida in 2004. She filled her retirement days traveling around Europe with Herb, singing in the church choir, participating in several book clubs, and spending time with her many dear friends. She also traveled a couple times to Cuba with her church and adored the new friends she made there. The most important thing to Rowe was family, however, and she felt very blessed to have all three of her kids living around her in Tallahassee over the past decade. Christmas was always a particularly special time decorating her tree and baking cookies with her three local grandkids. Rowe also loved a recent tradition of reuniting each summer with her brother and sister, and their families, at her niece's house on Lake Oconee, Georgia.

Rowe was a great wife, mom, grandmom, sister and aunt. She was also a great friend to many. She will be dearly missed.

A memorial service is planned for 10 am on Friday, July 19, at Trinity United Methodist Church, 120 West Park Avenue, Tallahassee, Florida. A reception will follow. All are welcome.

Rowe, was so kind and supportive to me when I was in college. She helped me get a job in the bureau of epidemiology at the state health department and provided great mentorship. I will always be grateful for her helping me really get started in my career and being a friend when I was living far away from home for the first time.

Words cannot describe Rowe. . .such a good friend, sense of humor, ready to "go and do", would try most anything (including ice skating where she broke her knee), always a a trusted ear that would listen and give the best advice, wonderful devoted wife, dedicated Christian. We met at Killlearn Methodist in the Singles Class. There were so many good times, trips, parties. Many of us married around the same time and became the Encore group. We still get together often, some 30 years later. I and those who knew her will miss her forever. My thoughts and prayers of comfort go to the family. Be Peaceful knowing she is with her Savior. Rowe was a loving and kind friend. As a travel mate to Cuba we had memories that are deep and heartfelt. We laughed until our sides hurt and enjoyed the love and hospitality of our Cuban brothers and sisters. Loved deeply by family and friends our sadness is overshadowed by the Joy she will find as she enters her eternal homeMaren Cox
