I am so sorry to hear of Joy's passing. We were friends in school in Maryland in middle and high school. We were the tallest girls in our class and both enjoyed sewing. My thoughts are with Jim and her family. Mary Beth (Devinney) Reynolds

On the 8th of August, I lay in bed next to Joy, we held hands and watched TV. I look over and notice she is no longer breathing. I call her name, but she doesn't respond, I place my head on her chest and can only hear a faint heartbeat beating once every 5 or 6 seconds. I called out to her again, but still no response. I look into her eyes and can see that she is no longer in pain. Her look was one of peace. I kissed her on her cheek and closed her eyes. Goodbye, my love. Gods speed.

I am so so sadden to just be getting this news Mr Jim. I miss her so much. I kept calling her til her phone was disconnected. Not wanting to believe she was gone. I finally made up my mind to search and this came up. I know you miss your love ❤️. So do alot of people here in Virginia. I was reminded of our last time seeing each other in July of 2016. You both welcomed me and my son to send time with you in your home. It's just a hard pill for me to swallow but I know she is no longer in pain. Rest well my dear friend my family and culinary buddy for life. I love you Joyous
