I've known Sandra for quite a few years now we have had several conversations about her love for her family, life, her fur babies, the Beach and her husband. There's one thing I can say that her and Brent would like two peas in a pod they always done things together and she love their beach trips. She talked a lot about her family and her grandchildren. I will miss her. Rest in Peace my friend

Sandra was a beautiful woman inside and out. She had a zest for life, loved Mexico Beach, her husband, her kids, her family, her friends and of course her 4 legged kids. I pray God puts his loving arms all who loved her.
