Pamela Hall Madaus

MAY 1, 1948 - DEC 27, 2024

Pamela Hall Madaus passed without pain on December 27, 2024, at her home in Tallahassee, after a long illness. She is survived by her loving husband of 53 years, J. Richard Madaus. Other survivors include her sister Suzanne Fricks of Savannah, Georgia, brother-in-law Thomas H. Madaus of Gulfport, Mississippi, nephew J. Allen Fricks and wife Victoria of Cumming Georgia, niece, Caroline and husband Jeff Wood of White Hall Maryland, nephew William Fricks of Savannah, Georgia, and great niece Adrianna Wood of White Hall Maryland.

Pamela was a graduate of the University of Chattanooga, and enjoyed a career as a Conference Planner for the University of Texas at Austin.

Pamela was an avid and prolific reader, insightful Astrologer, and an artist who loved painting in oils. She was a passionate lover of beautiful flowers. She enjoyed travel and college football, supporting her Georgia Bulldogs and the Florida State Seminoles in their National Championships. Her personal pleasures included fine dining and playing slot machines in various casinos. Pamela's friendship was valued, and she would do anything to support, assist or comfort her friends.

As per her request, no services are planned. Memorial contributions may be made to Big Bend Hospice, who took compassionate care of her in her final days.
