JoAnn Shepard Wells

MAR 6, 1941 - FEB 1, 2025

JoAnn Shepard Wells, 83, of Greensboro, FL., passed away on February 1, 2025.

A lifelong resident of Gadsden County, JoAnn was born in Quincy, Fl., on March 6, 1941, to Winton C. Shepard and Jessie Ray Shepard. She was raised in Greensboro, FL., and graduated from Greensboro High School in 1959. She was a member of the high school band where she played the flute.

In her adolescence and teen years, she attended Greensboro Baptist Church where she gave her heart to Jesus and became a born-again Christian. She then spent many years with her family attending Quincy First Baptist Church.

JoAnn was mostly a stay-at-home mom raising her two children. In later years she worked for McTavish Furniture Company in Quincy, Fl. and Cario, Ga. Following her employment there, she worked for several years with Flowers Baking Company in Quincy, Fl.

JoAnn is survived by her son, Matthew J. Wells (Shannon) of Tallahassee, sister, Carolyn Ayers Burns (Steve) of Quincy, brothers, Johnny M. Shepard (Carol) of Thomasville, GA., and R. Wayne Shepard (Barbara) of Donaldsonville, GA., a grandson, Jake Millard of Boston, Mass., granddaughter Taylor Wehler (James) of Tallahassee, FL., a great granddaughter, Sage Wehler, and numerous nieces and nephews.

She is preceded in death by her daughter, Michelle Wells Millard, her parents, Winton C. and Jessie Ray Shepard, and her brother, Hershel Shepard.

There are no public services planned at this time. The family will honor her wishes privately at a later date.

I can remember Aunt JoAnn when I was growing up. I would stay the night with Michelle and can remember thinking how elegant and prim and proper she was. She was so loving to us! I remember the first time I saw her in a Motley Crew t-shirt T NeeNaw's for our family gathering and thinking someone was impersonating her. She was a special lady and I'm sure she will be sorely missed! I hope she looked my daddy up when she got to heaven and that they are catching up. Much love to you all Matt and family and to all of the Aunts and Uncles still here taking care of all of us cousins!! Lisa
