Charles Ronald McCranie

NOV 2, 1950 - FEB 12, 2025

Charles Ronald McCranie, a Tallahassee resident, passed away the afternoon of February 12, 2025, while he was biking, one of his favorite pastimes. He was born in Lake Wales, Florida 74 years ago and was a graduate of Florida State University.

He is survived by Phyllis, his wife of 35 years; his son, Ryan (Mackenzie); stepsons, Allen and Craig (Paige) Thomas and four grandchildren, Cole, Anna, Nathan and Liam. He is also survived by his two younger sisters, Carol Simmons and June Newcomer (Chuck). All will sorely miss him.

Visitation will be held at Lifesong Funeral Home. 20 S. Duval Street, Quincy, FL at 11:00 A.M. Saturday, February 15, 2025.

Ronnie and my father were best of friends growing up and it continued with their families when we were growing up in Lake Wales. Dad and "Uncle CD" were in business together. Ronnie and I continued the friendship at Andrew College. Our parents remained close. June and Carol were like daughters to my mother. RIP my friend.

Hey Ralph! Just got back to Gainesville from Tallahassee. We celebrated Ron with his ashes being spread from the Wakulla river to the Gulf, followed by a great tribute of videos and music. There were a couple of pictures of our family at Ron's graduation from Andrew. You're a lifelong friend and we appreciate you ❤️

Bob and Joe and Rich and I had a great time hanging out at the Edenfield trail head last Wednesday. It was our daily habit for years. We predicted the evenings' basketball winners, asked about each others' families, bashed the news stories we didn't like, and enjoyed the trusted circle of our friendship. Everyone should know that Ron was smart, happy, and secure as he took off for the ride to the 2nd Red Oak sign. God Bless you and your loving family forever, Ron. With all my Respect, Bob Katte
