Marshall Youngblood Lee

MAY 19, 1937 - MAY 9, 2025

Marshall Youngblood Lee, 87, of Sawdust, Florida, passed away peacefully, surrounded by family on May 9, 2025, in Tallahassee.

She was a beloved daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, and friend. Her first granddaughter Kristin, lovingly named her “Ganma.”

Born to John and Margaret McClure Youngblood on May 19, 1937, in Tarboro, North Carolina, Marshall met the love of her life, Bob Lee, at a young age and they married in 1952. Their love story continued as they moved to West Palm Beach, seven years later. Bob was an educator and Marshall was a homemaker. They moved to Tallahassee in 1967, where Marshall and Bob began to raise horses and later cattle. They expanded their Polled Hereford herd and moved to Gadsden County in 1978. The little Presbyterian Church across the street from the farm was instrumental in their decision to move and establish Youngblood Farms.

Marshall served as an elder of the Woodland Presbyterian Church for many years, was President of the Woodland Women of the Church, and enjoyed teaching Sunday School.

In 1988, Marshall became a full-time caregiver to her newborn grandson, Lee. Georgia, Trey and Jonathan would soon join and for nine years, Ganma kept her grandchildren. Loading three kids up to attend a Jazzercise class was nothing to her. Three under four years old at the mall for lunch? Why not? But naps were never missed. Although the children remember watching her sleep and snore after story time. Ganma never missed a grandchild’s event. From May Day programs to Rob and the boys’ football games and other sporting events, you knew she would be there.

Family was everything to Marshall. Having her daughters and grandchildren near and even vacationing together at the beach or the North Carolina mountains has resulted in many fond and funny memories for her family to share.

When Bob and Marshall moved to Tallahassee, they were our neighbors on Pedrick.Road while it was still country Living and we had acreage. What a delightful couple that brought a lot of laughs to the group. They had horses and Marshall's dog and two nice little girls. We had some delightful and fun times together. There was always someone extra living with them. They were so generous and made sure everyone was taken care of. Marshall was the queen and Bob made sure she kept that position until he died. Now they can be together again and relive the wonderful life thy had together. I send love and sympathy to Kathy and Elizabeth and their families.

My sincere condolences to Marshals family. She was so many things... sassy, kind, loving, beautiful inside and out .. and so much more. Some of my favorite memories were when I would visit her...and the dogs of course..and I'd take her flowers and homemade sourdough bread. She will be forever missed and Heaven definitely welcomed another Angel !
