To the Goreau and Plate Families:I'm so very sorry for your loss and heartache. Judy was a dear friend and mentor to me. She shared many memories and celebrations of her family and she was devoted to each of you. May God Bless each of you in your grief. I pray for healing of the hearts for all that knew and loved Judy.

I came to know Judy, through my dear mother, Jeppa. Judy and my mom worked together and became good friends. Judy was a wonderful friend and intrepid friend to my mother and to me during in her last illness. Judy was a member of a group of friends, we called "The Golden Girls"; a quartet of good, strong, compassionate, nurses who all had a mischievous sense of humor and love for one another and an excellence as nurses - even as they retired or eventually worked in other fields. Judy was fun, irreverent at times, and loving. Judy loves her family- her son and his family were the world to her. I had the honor and privilege to know Judy, to be able to talk and text with her as a good friend about our relationship with Jesus when she recently lost her beloved brother, David. While Judy will be missed, I like to think of her in Heaven walking and talking with Jesus and her brother. I miss Judy in this world but look forward to the day when I will see her again in God's perfect and beautiful Heaven.
