“ So many great memories of my friend Jody. We were glued together for couple of years, I remember a tall, lean, but muscular kid - hair way too long and natural curls too cool for school! He played hard and sometimes he (maybe we) got in trouble for it, but nobody really got hurt... We ran around town, we shot guns in the woods. We fished, we laughed, we had a blast resisting growing up as hard as we could. We hung out at his house and mine. We ate the best Blade Meat sandwiches, ever, cooked by his Mom before she would let us go out. Then we both went on with life. Last time I saw Jody we argued. I hope he knows I loved him, and love him still. My deepest condolences to those who knew Jody well, please know how lucky you were for his contribution to your lives. Joe Gentle

“ Jody was a man of many talents. I will miss him dearly. I will especially miss our weekly conversations about everything going on in the country. I wholly appreciate the help he was to our family. From building our front and side yard (around our home addition) to plumbing the east side of the house and replacing my porch to building and wiring my shed! He was a man of many talents. He could survey your land or plumb and wire your house or build you an addition or a deck! He was a good Drummer; an Artist who could paint you a beautiful sunset or a Cook who could make you the best Portuguese Soup you've ever tasted! Rest in loving peace my Brother of many Talents. I'm sure I will see you again!

“ I was very sad to hear of Jody's passing. When we were kids Jody stayed at our house more than he was at home, Jody and my brother were very good friends. I had a family reunion a few years back and Jody came home for it so glad we had the time with him we had. My deepest sympathy goes out to Jody's family may they all find peace in the good memories they have. R.I.P. my friend

“ Dad,

We all miss you so much already- and I know it won't get easier. But we will get stronger. I am so glad that I can remember you in almost everything I see, from turtles to drums, knick-knacks and dogs, opossums to raccoons, in a hug from Jason, and so many more. I know you're always with me. I love you dad. I'll always be your bean.
