

Joyce Cotter

February 10, 1929 - July 25, 2019

Joyce M. Cotter passed away peacefully Thursday evening with her family by her side. She was predeceased by her beloved husband, John P. Cotter, her parents whom she loved, Ernest and Clare Seliano, her angel infant daughter, Carol A. Cotter and her treasured son-in-law, Connolly Lunsford.

Joyce is survived by her children and their loved ones, Bruce (MarLi), Connie (Stephen), Nancy (Connolly), and Karen (George), 13 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, 1 great-great grandchild, and her Florida great grand furry pets, who she loved to pet and give treats to, Coco Chanel, Penelope Grace and Scoochie.

Joyce found great joy in her family and friends. In her spare time, she was a writer, free-lance journalist for local papers, a docent for Villa Viscaya in Miami, and a champion for health and beautification causes. She will be missed and remembered by her family, friends and all who knew her for her great smile, her love of life, her kindness, and her independence.

A Celebration of Life is being planned, please check back for details.

“ What a beautiful picture. Your parents were so happy and now they are together again in Heaven. I know you miss her terribly but she is where she has wanted to be with her husband. Have comfort in knowing she had a wonderful rich and fulfilling life. She was truly blessed. She will be missed by everyone who knew her. My thoughts and prayers go out to Karen, George and Annie during this difficult time. - Kathy Fisher

“ Karen, although I didn't get a chance to meet your mother in person, she was obviously an extraordinarily caring and compassionate individual to have such a wonderful daughter as you. This was apparent in the few times that I did get to interact with her while you talked to her at the office using face time. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time and, as you celebrate your mother's rich life. -Brandon H.

“ Thank you so much, Brandon. I had forgotten about the FaceTime and the memory brought a smile to my heart.
