

Tray Adam Kemp

July 8, 1985 - April 17, 2017

Tray Adam Kemp, 31 of Tallahassee, was peacefully taken into the arms of our Lord early in the morning on April 17, 2017 after a lingering medical condition.

Tray was a loving, caring, and a “fun-to-be-around” kind of guy. He loved his family, Florida Gators and BBQing. He leaves to continue his legacy, his wonderful daughter, Hailey, his amazing son, Ian, and the love of his life and mother of his world, Brittany Rayburn. He is also survived by his proud parents, Larry and Marie Kemp, brothers Robby Kemp (Aja Kemp) and Dakota Kemp (Casey Bowen); and loving admiring sisters Cheyanne Kemp (Cason Ash), Ashley Kemp (Michael Daniels), and Rachel Williams (Lyle Clanton), Grandparents Mary Kemp, and Oscar and Edna Martin. In addition, survived by nieces Kyra and Alexandria and nephews Dominic, Jayden, Jackson, Dominick and Cameron. Additional survivors include his aunts Debra Gibbs (Barry) and Josie Lane, his uncles Patrick Johnson (Mary) and Oscar Martin Jr., a special cousin Pastor Kyle Johnson, who was more like his brother, additional cousins include Rosie Hill and others, and numerous friends, too many to even keep count.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather C.T. Kemp (“Pawpaw”)

A celebration of his life and BBQ will be held Saturday April 22 at the home of his parents in Tallahassee.

In lieu of flowers, a fund has been established for his children and the family at www.spiritofachildfoundation.org or mail to Spirit of A Child Foundation, P O Box 13954, Tallahassee, FL 32317-3954 earmarked for Kemp/Rayburn Family.

Comments

“ Today, 3 years ago, I realized that you were ready to go home, but I was not ready to accept it. Little did I know that when you sent Brittany and I on a search for Life Savers, it really was not for the Life Saver candy that we were in search of. We are now approaching 3 years since you left this earthly home to go to your heavenly home. Time seems to stand still sometimes and it is really hard to believe you are not here. I see, hear and smell things that remind me of you each and every day. I miss you so much, but remember that it will only be a short time that I will only have to cling to the memories that we have. I know you would be so proud of Brittany and the kids for how they have progressed. They still miss you and we talk about you every time we get together. I know that you had a great reunion when Nanny joined you and can hear you and her laughing it up. I can hear you telling Uncle Gene you will shine his head for a nickel. I hear your jokes, see your smile and smell your smoked boston butt! But nothing that I remember, makes me miss you more than the daily calls you made to me, just to make sure I was ok. If only I could get one more phone call. I so love and miss you..... til i see you again. Love..Mom

Marie Kemp - April 15, 2020 at 10:46 AM

“ Son, time sure has been dragging since you have left us. Thanksgiving was just not the same, as we did not have anyone to fry the turkey or carve the ham and some food just could not be cooked, as it was always "fixed for Tray". Your laughter is missed by all and I miss your calls the most. Til I see you again...love you. ~Mom

Marie - December 05, 2017 at 01:59 PM

“ My dearest son, time has gone by so slowly since you have gone. I miss you more today than yesterday and my heart longs to hear your voice and see your face. I keep trying to hang on the good times, but it is so hard. Miss you so very much.....Mom

Marie Kemp - September 18, 2017 at 09:57 AM

“ Today makes a month that we realized you were ready to go home. It is not getting any easier, but I know you are happy now and not in pain. I will always love and miss you my funny guy. As I scroll facebook, I see posts that are out there that I say, if Tray was here, he would have posted that. I constantly seek your face and to hear your voice. I am still trying, but I surely do miss you so much.

Mom - May 15, 2017 at 12:08 PM

“ It has been a week now since you have gone on home to be with Pawpaw and all of the others that have gone on before you. I miss you so much. I no longer have that daily phone call from you to make sure that I am ok. I know that it is going to take time, but I really do miss you. I am trying my best with Brittany, Hailey and Ian, but no one will ever replace the void that it is in my heart. I will always be proud of the young man you were and the best father ever to Hailey and Ian and the care and love you provided to Brittany. I will forever love you and cannot wait until I see you again. Tag....your it. ~ Mom

Marie Kemp - April 25, 2017 at 10:38 AM

“ Wishing the Kemp-Rayburn family members peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories of Tray to forever hold in your hearts.
Deepest condolences.
Anna Estes

Anna Estes - April 21, 2017 at 04:48 PM

“ To one of the three amigos!!! Tray, Robby, and Kyle (my son) grew up like brothers instead of cousins....they were ALL my boys! I will miss him, its like a part of our world is gone, but we will always remember the laughs and the times that we shared. It doesn;t feel real to me, but I have my memories to fall back on. We love you and you will always be with us!

Debra Gibbs - April 21, 2017 at 01:27 PM

“ Our deepest condolences and sympathies. We want to send our love and prayers to the entire Kemp/Rayburn family. Hailey and Ian are wonderful blessings and will carry on a legacy their father will be proud of. The Bramblett Family

Vickie Bramblett - April 20, 2017 at 09:09 PM

“ To Robert & Aja Kemp, Jayden, Dominic, and Dominick: Our heartfelt sympathy and condolences at the transitioning of your beloved Tray. We pray your strength and comfort during this period of bereavement and in the days to come. God Bless You All. (Pat Thurman & Coach Chay Shuler)

Marilyn Pat Thurman - April 20, 2017 at 04:39 PM

“ Love you brother you are deeply missed. I remember taken u to your first club in pc called club lavla might be spelling it wrong i just know its the biggest club. Watch you do the worm that shit was funny. We've had alot of good an bad times. Known Tray Kemp since the second grade.

Jamie Rogers - April 20, 2017 at 01:33 PM

“ Tray was always a wonderful nephew who always wanted me to laugh,sometimes at his own expensive,,I remember more than once him falling off the porch while doing tricks

Josie Lane - April 20, 2017 at 01:24 PM